A well-known Psychologist rode by and heard the Soldier with PTSD cries for help. He stopped and asked, "How did you get in there" Were you born there? Did your parents put you there? Tell me about yourself; it will alleviate your sense of loneliness. So the Soldier with PTSD talked with him for an hour, then the Psychologist had to leave, but he said he'd be back next week. The Soldier with PTSD thanked him, but he was still in the hole.

A Priest came by. The Soldier with PTSD called for help. The Priest gave him a Bible and said, "I'll say a prayer for you." He got down on his knees and prayed for the Soldier with PTSD, then left. The Soldier with PTSD was very grateful, he read the Bible, but was still stuck in the hole.
